JUDGMENT

Petitioners availed a loan, which they could not repay. Prayer in the writ petition is for a direction to the respondents to grant time for repayment within a time limit.

2. I heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the Bank.

This court had granted an interim stay on condition that the petitioners remit Rs. 20,000/-. It is the common case that the amount is not paid. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that he has no further instructions in the matter. Having regard to all the facts, there is no merit in the writ petition. Hence writ petition is dismissed.
